

The British Herpetological Society [The BHS]

Registered Charity No. 205666

www.thebhs.org

- Is actively involved in the conservation of wild reptiles and amphibians both in Britain and overseas through its Conservation Committee.
- Promotes captive breeding and improved standards of general husbandry through its Captive Breeding Committee.
- Is internationally influential in the publication of academic research into a wide range of subjects through its Research Committee.
- Promotes "good practice" and responsible herpetology through its Education Committee which also runs the "Young Herpetologists Club" [YHC].

To join the Y.H.C. please fill in and return the form below complete with the relevant payment to:
BHS Education Committee, 11 Strathmore Place, Montrose, Angus, DD10 8LQ

Male Female Please appropriate boxes on this form

Where did you first hear about the YHC ? _____

Name: _____

Address: _____

Post Code: _____

☎ No: _____ Date of Birth: _____ / _____ / _____

E-mail address: _____

I enclose a cheque payable to "British Herpetological Society" for:

£10.00 UK Basic Membership or £20.00 UK Bulletin Membership
€20.50 EU Basic Membership or €41.00 EU Bulletin Membership

EU fees cover additional postage costs

I understand that the B.H.S. reserves the right to refuse membership to any applicants who may, in the opinion of the B.H.S. Council, bring the name of the Society into disrepute. I understand also that members are liable for expulsion, (without any claim for a refund of subscription), for any action or behaviour which, in the opinion of the B.H.S. Education Committee, is likely to bring the name of the Y.H.C. into disrepute.

Signed:..... Date:.....
